REFLECTION FOR 5th EASTER SUNDAY 27th/28th APRIL 2024

Dear Parishioners,

The Church for the first time spread beyond Jerusalem. With the Baptism of Paul, at Damascus and his journey to Arabia for three years the Christian faith was spread beyond the borders of Judaism. We are all called to spread the Gospel of Christ fearlessly in our various capacity in love and in peace.

Love of God above all and love of our neighbour as ourselves are the two commandments that summarised all laws and prophets. Practising these commandments is the through and practical testimony to the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Out of love for us, he suffered, died and rose from the dead to prepare a befitting eternal life for us.

As followers of Christ, we must be ready to bear the pain of pruning, as to adhere ourselves to the Lord Jesus Christ who gives life and eternal bliss at the end of time. We must be ready through our love and trust in God and self-giving to others, to make our world a better place.

These must be done in Love without compromising our faith and believes as Christians.

God bless you,

Fr Jerome O. Dukiya, CSSp

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY IN LAST SUNDAY'S COLLECTIONS

FRIENDS OF THE EARTH

Invite to:

London and Eastern England FoE Gathering Sat 18 May

The perfect opportunity for Local Action Groups from London and East of England to come together for a day of sharing, connecting, plotting and planning. Our Summer Action Gathering is a friendly, inclusive event for everyone in Friends of the Earth Local Action Groups and wider environmental justice activist network. If you are taking action for climate justice, we want you to be there. If you are committed to building a more diverse, more powerful climate justice movement, we need you. And if you need help to get started, we'll be there to help.

ST JOHN VIANNEY SCHOOL

It is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. The birthday party will be in the form of a Summer Fair, Saturday 29th June 2024, 12 to 4pm, to bring the community together and raise funds for the school. All money raised will be to improve facilities and equipment, and subsidise extra-curricular activities such as music and art.

The Friends' Association of St John Vianney School: "Due to the pandemic, we haven't held a Summer Fair since 2019...this year our children deserve funded extra-curricular activities and equipment to help with their learning. We would appreciate any help that you can offer to make our anniversary year one to remember... Please send any donations to the Friends' Association of St John Vianney School or contact us directly by email at: sjvfriends@gmail.com

This is also an invitation to all alumni of the school.
