15th Sunday of Ordinary Time Year C 13th July 2025

Jesus Christ in the Gospel, gave a vivid example of how to put the law of God into practical usage. The Samaritan, who is a hated enemy of the Jews, did not pay back with hates, but with compassion and love.

The law of God, which is all about the Love of God and the Love of our neighbour, has no boundary and it has no social definitions. To practice the law is to act with love and compassion toward another. We should treat God's creation and creatures with equal love and compassion.

Today we are called to duty, to put God's love to practice, by showing equal and unconditional love to all humanity. There is no room for discrimination in any forms.

As an image of the image of the invisible God, we must continue the good work of creation, through the spreading of God's love to those who come our ways on daily basis. Thus, like Jesus through our love we can give life to our dying world.

recognition of the power of God working through us by the power of the Holy Spirit.

So, in joyful praise we give honour, glory, to God in adoration and worship in His temple.

Fr. Jerome Otitoyomi Dukiya CSSp.
