DIVINE MERCY 2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER 12TH APRIL 2026

Divine Mercy Sunday invites us to reflect deeply on God's boundless love and forgiveness, as revealed in the life of the early Church, the hope of new life in Christ, and the risen Jesus' gift of mercy.

In the Acts of the Apostles, we see a community transformed by the Spirit—living in unity, generosity, and joyful trust in God. This is not just an idealized past but a living example of what happens when people open themselves to divine mercy. Their love for one another, their care for the needy, and their shared prayer life reveal hearts touched and renewed by God's grace. On this Sunday, we are reminded that mercy is not only something we receive but something we are called to embody in our relationships and communities.

The First Letter of Peter deepens this reflection by reminding us that through baptism, we are given new birth into a living hope. Divine mercy is not a one-time gift but an ongoing transformation. Like gold refined in fire, our lives are shaped through trials, calling us to trust in God's promise of an eternal inheritance. Divine Mercy Sunday is an opportunity to renew that identity—to recognize both the dignity we have received and the work still to be done within us.

Finally, the Gospel reveals the heart of Divine Mercy. The risen Jesus, acknowledged as "My Lord and my God," entrusts to his Church the power to forgive sins. This is mercy in its fullest form: not ignoring wrongdoing, but healing and restoring through love. True forgiveness, like a wound that heals stronger than before, creates deeper bonds and reflects God's own compassion.

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, we are invited to trust more fully in God's mercy, to seek it sincerely, and to extend it generously to others, becoming living witnesses of His love in the world.

3. Encounter Youth Gathering

On the 4th of July you are invited to join us at SPEC Retreat Centre for our first ever Encounter gathering, for groups with young people between the ages of 14-17. This one-day event offers a joyful opportunity to encounter Christ through prayer, community and activities. This year's theme is rooted in Isaiah's response to the Lord "Here I am Lord, send me". The day will invite young people to reflect on readiness and availability to God, like our Mother Mary and the Saints who have gone before us.

The day will include Mass as the central celebration, Adoration and Confession, inspiring speakers and creative workshops and activities. Through all this the young people will be encouraged to deepen their relationship with Christ while discovering how they are called to serve within the Church and the world. Alongside the spiritual programme, the gathering will provide opportunities for networking between youth groups.

We ask for a £10 donation per child. (The Parish will take charge of the cost of the first 20 people that indicate their interest). Kindly encourage your children to be part of this event. Youth group leaders and adult supervisors attend free of charge.
